

Lafayette

Remember "Children's Night" at the school auditorium next Thursday evening, Dec. 22. The teachers are busy preparing their Xmas entertainment which promises to be unusually good and to which everyone is invited.

Guy Blanton of Lorain spent a few days at the home of his brother Claude the past week.

Nina Shaw of Leroy was a guest of her friend, Mrs. Ned Alexander, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Cowling is again very sick, having suffered a complete breakdown the past week. A complication of stomach trouble, gripe and anxiety over her son's illness have been the causes of her more recent sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Curtice entertained a number of relatives from La Grange at Sunday dinner, among whom were Clyde Horton and wife, Chas. Faulkner and three children and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Foster. Harold Cooper, who visited at his uncle's home the past three weeks, also returned to his home in LaGrange Sunday.

Samuel Young of Short street left last Wednesday for Custer, Wood county, to spend the winter at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ed. Clapp.

Word has come from Maryland that the two neighbor farmers, Mr. Weltmer and Mr. Trowbridge, have arrived at their destination and both find the country and climate very much to their liking. Mr. Weltmer's health is improving every day and thus far he has suffered no asthmatic attacks to mar the pleasures of his journey.

Mrs. Olive Canfield and Miss Klooz Lakewood were visitors at the home of their brother, E. G. Klooz Sunday.

The Misses Mamie and Olive Schleman were hostesses Monday evening at a party for the Girls' Guild of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, Medina. Aside from serving in the capacity of butler at the picnic supper, the obliting brother, Frederick Jr., also demonstrated his knack and willingness to carry dainty bundles of femininity in out of the snow whenever opportunity afforded.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Eaken had as their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin of Akron and Ed. Scholtz and wife of Cleveland.

Harry Lance and family were entertained at the home of his brother, Floyd Lance and wife of Akron, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Wendt and daughter Irene came out from Cleveland Saturday to be the guest of the former's sister, Mrs. Wm. Fike over Sunday.

Mr. Fike Sr., who has been at the home of his daughter in Pittsburgh for sometime past returned to his son's home Saturday.

Referring to the recent purchase of land by Mr. Schleman, our item should have read that he had bought all of the Fenn woods, inclusive in the deal except about 25 trees, instead of 25 acres of trees, along the north line.

At no time in the history of the County Home has there been so many inmates as there are this winter. Mr. Fokett says that they number 79 now with every week bringing in more. Every cot and bed is full, really more than can be conveniently cared for. All but two of the nine children of the Bean and Spice families have been placed in homes where their board is furnished them. However, five others from the Lake entered the Home this week to remain until boarding places can be found. No deaths have occurred since last June and there is now but very little sickness among the inmates.

Mrs. Rose Earnest and daughter Jane are expected at the Ballash home Thursday to remain during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hoff entertained their pedro club from town on Wednesday evening, eight couples in all.

Mabel Baird, one of the Infirmary helpers, was called to the bedside of her grandmother, Mrs. Tad Crush of Burbank, who is ill with little hopes of her recovery.

Little Maxine Snyder has been having a painful time with earache, accompanied with spells of high temperature and delirium.

Friendsville

Mrs. Harold Hull is expecting to go to Elyria to spend two or three weeks with friends and relatives there.

Mr. Roy Baker of Cleveland spent from Thursday evening until Sunday evening with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Knecht.

On Saturday afternoon Messrs. Roy Baker and Corte Knecht and the Misses Mildred and Cloda Knecht called on their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lance of Lafayette.

Mrs. Grover Woods was a business caller in Medina on Tuesday.

Mr. Fred Underwood and family spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Grover DeLong.

Mrs. Art Seeley was very ill last week with acute indigestion, but is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Francis Butdorff's sister and son of Wooster spent several days with her last week.

Mrs. Harry Kreiger and son Robert of Chatham are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kreiger. She will remain here until Mr. Kreiger returns home from Warren.

One of Mr. North's valuable dogs was shot last week.

George Knecht and friend Stanley Gerstenslager were in Elyria last Sunday.

They are about ready to drill for gas on Mr. Harvey Hartman's farm.

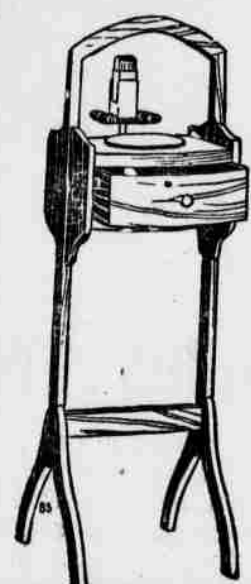

Mrs. Fred Eastman's mother, Mrs. Kindig, died at the home of her daughter in Chatham on Sunday.
